Morfa Borth - the Marsh Harbour

A bungalow on the south side of the lane to the Community Hall at the southern end of the village.

The bungalow is built on a platform on flat land reclaimed from the Cors Fochno between a footpath and an old watercourse, now a deep ditch. It has a brick base, and the remaining walls are rendered. There is a chimney allowing a fire or stove in the lounge.

On the 25 inch Ordnance Survey Map of 1905, revised in 1904 there was no building on this ground, although a footpath from the High Street and at another angle was already there. The ground was 'waste - unsuitable for farming, and the Crown Manor who owned it sold it in 1925 as far as a watercourse which today is a deep ditch (Map National Archives LRRO 1/3060. The West End bungalow was already there but Wave Crest and Sea Breezes were not. Possibly the building of the Community Hall opened in 1999 was the opportunity to develop this site.
